

Datasheet:

Mare Island

Spanning over 5000 acres, the Mare Island Naval Shipyard served to build and repair submarines deployed in the Pacific Ocean. Operating during WWI and WWII, the shipyard supported naval tactical efforts that played a vital role protecting United States' interests.

Our Reclaimed Wood is heat treated and metal free!

Source: Mare Island Naval Shipyard

Prior Use: Floor joists in office/warehouse Building #387

Species: Douglas fir (Pseudotsuga Menziesii)

Certified: FSC® Recycled 100%

Specifications: ¾" x 7-3/4" x random length, Tongue & Groove

Character: Rough sawn original patina, medium to dark brown color variation, knots, checking, and nail holes

Material #: MI-DF

The mark of responsible forestry

(408) 778-2036

reclaimedwood@missionbell.com

© Copyright Mission Bell 2018