

Datasheet:

Oakland Army Base

Throughout its nearly sixty-year tenure, the base served as a transportation terminal moving troops and materials into the Pacific. It also served as an administrative and military cantonment for thousands of military troops. The base grew to include 55 acres of covered warehouses, some of which were the size of a modern-day aircraft carrier.

Our Reclaimed Wood is heat treated and metal free!

Source: Port of Oakland/Oakland Army Base

Prior Use: Roof decking from base warehouses

Species: Douglas Fir (Pseudotsuga Menziesii)

Certified: FSC® Recycled 100%

Specifications: 11/16" x 4-7/8" x random length, Shiplap

Character: Smooth original patina, tan to brown color variation, knots, checking, and nail holes

Material #: OA-DF

The mark of responsible forestry

(408) 778-2036

reclaimedwood@missionbell.com

© Copyright Mission Bell 2018